Forever float that standard sheet
Where breathes the foe but falls before us;
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming over us!

Memphis Probably Ours.

The evacuation of Forts Pillow and Randolph is confirmed. Our troops are in possession of the first named fort. There is no reliable account that our forces have occupied Memphis, but there is but little doubt that this is the case.

Charleston Soon to be Captured.

News from Port Royal to the 27th ult. has been received. At that time it was expected that Charleston would be attacked very soon. It will be a combined naval and military attack under Gen. Hunter and Com. Dupont. The forces had arrived within four miles of Charleston. We hope this is true and that the hateful locality, where treason was first hatched, will be reduced to subjection, and we may add destruction. The latter would be a retribution well deserved for the untold misery and loss which the plotters at Charleston have caused throughout the country. If Gen. Hunter should burn the city and plough up the site where it stood, the country would say amen to it.

General Fremont.

At last accounts, the headquarters of General Fremont were at Mount Jackson, where the Shenandoah railroad terminates. "Stonewall" Jackson has been nearly driven out of the valley, having managed by destroying bridges to keep ahead of our forces. The recent storm was very severe in that quarter, and much impedes the march of the army.

Military Governors.

It will be noticed that Gov. Stanley assumes the right to banish loyal American citizens, as well as to break up schools and return fugitive slaves by military authority. It is about time to enquire, what are the limitations of the power of these new governors. The people might assent to some stretch of authority to suppress the rebellion, but not to uphold the demands of rebels in trusting out of the state such as they do not like, nor for the return of their human chattels. When it comes to that the country would like to know of the president where he gets his authority to appoint governors of states. We can well see why and how a military commander of a department should govern under martial law the people within his jurisdiction, but a military governor is another sort of personage, whose powers and duties are as much unknown to the military code as the civil law.

Seven Thousand Killed and Wounded

When the battle of Chickasaw was first announced it was stated by Gen. McClellan that our loss was "heavy." The telegraph next told us that it was 300, then 3,000, and now it is 7,000. We shall not be astonished to hear that it is 10,000. Does the government or its generals think the people children that they cannot bear the truth without "breaking the bad news" to them by piecemeal in this kind of style? At this rate a war bulletin will soon be regarded as a war authority at all.

The battle appears to be a Pittsburg Landing affair. As at that battlefield, we had war regiments put in front, spread out in a weak line, badly supported, and behind them a river. The enemy, contrary to the programme laid down for them, attacked this weak spot with their best troops in overwhelming force. Of course our troops gave way—they could not help it, no more than the brave fellows at Shiloh. Thousands of them were cut down, shot down and trampled under foot by the immense force precipitated upon them. The divisions over the river rallied, came to their aid, and by hand fighting the enemy was driven back, and the final victory was won. But was this sacrifice of 7,000 men necessary? We shall not know until all the details are received. At present however, we do not feel enthusiastic over this battle—but we are thankful that it is no worse.

SLAVE "HELP."—The economy of the division of labor in the slave states is well illustrated in the following incident: A lady of Washington city, desiring to procure a "help," made application at the headquarters of the "contrabands" on Capitol Hill, where the following colloquy ensued between herself and a female contraband who had escaped from "service" in Virginia.

Lady—Well, Dinah, you say you want a place. What can you do? Can you cook?

Contraband—No, m'm; mammy, she always cooked.

Lady—Are you a good chambermaid?

Contraband—Sister Sally, she always did the chambers.

Lady—Can you wait in the dining room and attend the door?

Contraband—La! no, m'm; Jim; that was his work.

Lady—Can you wash and iron?

Contraband—Well, you see, m'm, Aunt Becky, she always washed!

Lady—Can you sew?

Contraband—Charity, she always sew'd.

Lady—Then, what in the world did you do?

Contraband—Why, I always kep' the flies off m' mist'!

GOV. STANLEY IN NORTH CAROLINA

Extraordinary Efforts in Behalf of Slavery.

The correspondent of the New York Times, writing from Newbern, North Carolina, on the 31st, gives some particulars of the conduct of the new provisional governor of that state, recently appointed by the President, which will startle the country. He attended the colored school opened by Mr. Colyer, when the latter announced that the school was closed by order of Governor Stanley. In his account of it he says: "During the prayer, when incidental reference was made to the closing of the school, that single sentence dashed all hopes and sent a pang to every heart. The superintendent remarked that during the six weeks the schools had been opened, no disorder had occurred, and not the slightest complaint had been made by the authorities. The schools had been uniformly closed before the hour of guard mounting, though by this course they had been obliged to assemble at an inconvenient hour, leaving their work at the fortification and on the bridge frequently without their weapons, in order to be early at the school. They had made many rapid progress over one hundred, only few days progress, having been selected as teachers, who could read with facility, and the remainder were able, after a few minutes' instruction, to read the common lesson. He alluded to the fact that three or four hundred of them had been engaged upon one work—the fort—and that no disturbance had occurred, not a fight had taken place among them. Meantime they had lived in most convenient places, generally kitchens and outbuildings in the town, crowded together in unhealthy and irritating circumstances. The old people dropped their heads upon their benches and wept in silence; the young looked at each other with mute surprise and grief at this sudden termination of their bright hopes. It was a sad and impressive spectacle. Mr. Colyer continues the school for poor white children."

SENDING BACK THE STATES. Yesterday the governor was waited on by a large number of residents, in and out of town, who congratulated him upon the auspicious beginning of his official career. Among others, several persons applied for the restoration of their fugitive property, and he sought protection from the tyranny of the plantation within our lines. One Nicholas Bray, living a few miles from town on the Falmouth road, obtained an order to carry off two slave women. With his wife he proceeded to an old school building where one of them was lying sick, he dragged her forth and moved her away to the plantation. Her sister, a bright mulatto young woman of unusual attractions, hearing of the proceedings, was made almost frantic, and sought asylum at the only place she knew, the headquarters of the poor. Elated at his success, Bray dashed up and without ceremony, he searched the premises. Mr. Colyer at the time was away. Apprised of his coming, Harriet flew with lightning speed, and concealed herself in an outbuilding almost under the eaves of Gen. Burnside's headquarters. Not finding the object of his search, Bray drove off, probably to renew the search at a more convenient season. Harriet is only about seventeen years of age, and Bray asserts that he has been offered fifteen hundred dollars for her.

Bray is a brother-in-law of A. G. Enback, late quartermaster of the rebel militia, lately at this place. He is a well known man, was mustered into the service, it is said, and only escaped taking part in the battle of Newbern on account of some alleged injury to his back. He promised to take the oath of allegiance. The greatest consternation prevails among the negroes. Those employed on the fortifications are so alarmed at the prospect of being returned to their rebel masters, as to incapacitate them for work.

FEELING AMONG THE OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS.

The new administration has fallen upon the officers and soldiers in this place like a wet blanket. Prominent officers, down to the humblest soldiers in the ranks, speak in the course which the new governor is pursuing, and I have not met an individual, either officer or soldier, and I have seen a large number, who does not condemn, in the plainest language, the course which has been adopted. Nevertheless, no whisper of disloyalty to the government has, or will be, uttered or tolerated in any quarter. Massachusetts, as well as New York troops, it is assumed, will conquer their prejudices and execute the behests of the government, believing that measures are adopted for the putting down of the slaveholding rebellion. It would be a dereliction of duty on my part, however, to conceal at the present time, the state of feeling which prevails, and to predict that military force will be long required to assist in compelling the return of fugitive slaves to their claimants.

I have carefully watched in every quarter for the uprising of the Union sentiment in this state, but, unlike the reports of the Tribune, have failed to see it. Hence, I have refrained from misleading the public on that subject. For the correctness of my reports, in this respect, I appeal to every officer and soldier in the department. ACT THIRD.—THE "CRISIS."—MR. D. H. KELPER EXPATRIATED. The following correspondence explains itself. Mr. Kelper, like Gov. Stanley, is a native of this state, and belongs in Rowan county. As his later status, he has been engaged in the army, and also in other important positions of the government service. He is a brother of Hinton Hunt, author of the "Impending Crisis."

NEWBERN, N. C., May 30th, 1862.

To His Excellency, Gov. Stanley:

DEAR SIR:—I wish you to know that I am in a spirit of love and kindness. They are only the words of a man—a son of the State—who heartily desires to be a citizen of the United States.

I enlisted in the service as a private soldier, for the purpose of fighting down the slaveholding rebellion, which was considered out of aid service on the 1st of February last, on my own application, to join the division of the army, in the event of my being admitted to the service. I might be more useful in my native state than elsewhere. This course was by some thought to be imprudent.

I have received your answer with no little impatience, under the expectation that a new era was to be inaugurated by your administration, and that you would be guided by the high principle of again settling on my native soil, and becoming useful. Without any means of knowing the policy to be adopted, by you, I have been led to believe that you would be guided by the high principle of again settling on my native soil, and becoming useful.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Omaha Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

Three distinct shocks of an earthquake here to-day; it was also felt at several different points north as far as Urbana. No damage done so far as ascertained. There are yet some doubts that the fleet has passed Fort Randolph, where the rebels are said to have taken the guns which were removed from the fort above. They left five or six guns. Before leaving they destroyed the barracks, camp equipment, gun carriages and such stores as could not be transported. The boats were constructed of cotton, of which the best work was constructed. The boats cast off at five o'clock, yesterday morning, followed by transports carrying the 46th Indiana, Col. Kitch, who now occupies the works, which are said to be of great strength. If properly manned they could have successfully resisted a large force. The rebels, after leaving the fort, destroyed the pontoon bridge which they had constructed some weeks since over the Hatcher river. When the De Soto left, which has just arrived from the fleet, gunboats had passed the fort and gone down the river. It is reported that the rebels have evacuated Fort Randolph. If it is the case nothing prevents the fleet from arriving at Memphis, to-day.

NEW YORK, June 6. Specials state that Gen. Dix expects Col. Corcoran at Fort Monroe to-night.

Special to the New York Tribune.

FRONT ROYAL, June 6. Capt. Landerson, chief commissary, has taken possession of all the flour mills in the valley, together with the grain and flour on hand. Safe guards have been granted to the commanding general to all families who request them, without respect to their loyalty or disloyalty, and the soldiers who violate them will do so under the penalty of being immediately shot.

THE WEATHER is still unsettled and the roads almost impassable. Branches of the Shenandoah are still rising.

CAIRO, June 6. The dispatch boat of last night reports the evacuation of Fort Pillow and its occupation by our troops. Most of the flotilla has passed below Fort Randolph.

[Signed,] A. M. PENROCK, Commanding, &c.

REMARKS OF THE HEADQUARTERS, June 6. The further pursuit of Jackson has been impossible, to-day, owing to the sudden rise of the Shenandoah river. A pontoon bridge, replacing the bridge burnt by the rebels, was completed, and part of General Fremont's force crossed this morning. It rained hard all night and day. The river rose 12 feet in four hours, bringing down great quantities of drift wood and heavy timber, which finally parted the bridge in the middle. The material was all saved and no accidents occurred. Four hundred prisoners have been taken.

Correspondence of the New York Advertiser.

UNION STAFFS, ST. LOUIS, MO., June 6. I have barely time to forward a letter by the prize just captured off this place, which is on its way northward. The news here is quite important. Our gunboats are within four miles of Charleston, by way of Stone Island, and we all expect soon to attack it.

The Tribune editorially says: "We learn through a private channel, in which we confide, that the Unionists of Texas will soon be heard from. We understand that their arrangements for restoring their state to the Union have been quickly matured and that they have, ere this, thrown the old flag to the breeze under the lead of General Sam Houston. We cherish strong hopes that the rebels of Texas will soon turn up missing, and that Old Sam and Uncle Sam will have possession of the state. We await further tidings with lively interest."

Tribune's Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, June 6. Col. Geo. F. Shepley, of Maine, who is at present military commander of New Orleans, has, upon the recommendation of Gen. Butler, been appointed military governor of Louisiana. Capt. Schultz arrived to-day, with the treaty with Great Britain for the suppression of the slave trade, signed by the queen. Ratifications having been exchanged, the treaty is now law.

McCLANAHAN'S HEADQUARTERS, June 6. A flag of truce came in to-day, from Gen. Hagerman, seeking for the bodies of Gen. Pettigrew and Col. Davis, Lightfoot, Tong and Britton, who were supposed to have been killed in the late battle. Col. Davis was the only one killed. Lightfoot and Tong are prisoners and Britton was wounded, as also Gen. Pettigrew. Col. Davis' body will be returned.

Arrival of the Steamer City of Washington.

LIVERPOOL, May 28. Flour 24s 24d 1d. Wheat quiet and 12d lower, chiefly on fine quality, red western and southern 9s 6d 10s 6d.

LONDON, May 27. Flour inactive and 6d 10d lower. Wheat quiet and 12d lower. The steamer Southwick and Gladiator from Nassau, with cotton, turpentine, &c., had arrived at Liverpool.

The Post says that Davis and Beauregard can inflict defeat on the federals the independence of the south will be achieved. If they are overthrown the south may be considered vanquished.

FRANCE.—The Paris Patrie denies the rumors that France intended to withdraw from Mexico.

WASHINGTON, June 6. It appears that about 170 prizes have been taken by our cruisers. In consequence of the delay of the government officers in condemning the rebel vessels and cargoes captured, it is impossible to state the value of the prizes, immoveable estate can be made of the enormous amount of prizes in the naval service. Some idea, however, may be formed of the total by the single case of the Canonician, which arrived at New York a few days ago. This vessel and cargo is valued at a million and a half of dollars. The sailors who captured her will probably receive $1,300 each. It is said there are some 15 vessels equally as valuable now trying to run the blockade. It is said that English speculators in arms have sent about 25,000 field rifles to Nassau, where they dispose of them to rebel agents, who re-ship them to the blockade. This is the way the British have been acting as neutrals towards us, in order to prevent the horrors of civil war.

ST. LOUIS, June 6. The following specimen of rebel lying is taken from the Memphis Argus of the 4d: "GRAND JUNCTION, June 2. St. Louis papers of the 27th, just received, say that Washington is in danger.—Stonewall Jackson is within 25 miles of the capital and has possession of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. The governors of Rhode Island and Massachusetts have called out the militia and granted passports to the rebels. France has agreed to interfere. England proposed to France that if she would withdraw her garrison from Rome she would join her and interfere in this war. France has withdrawn as proposed, and papers say we may look for them in a few weeks on our shores. Great fears are entertained for

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Omaha Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

Three distinct shocks of an earthquake here to-day; it was also felt at several different points north as far as Urbana. No damage done so far as ascertained. There are yet some doubts that the fleet has passed Fort Randolph, where the rebels are said to have taken the guns which were removed from the fort above. They left five or six guns. Before leaving they destroyed the barracks, camp equipment, gun carriages and such stores as could not be transported. The boats were constructed of cotton, of which the best work was constructed. The boats cast off at five o'clock, yesterday morning, followed by transports carrying the 46th Indiana, Col. Kitch, who now occupies the works, which are said to be of great strength. If properly manned they could have successfully resisted a large force. The rebels, after leaving the fort, destroyed the pontoon bridge which they had constructed some weeks since over the Hatcher river. When the De Soto left, which has just arrived from the fleet, gunboats had passed the fort and gone down the river. It is reported that the rebels have evacuated Fort Randolph. If it is the case nothing prevents the fleet from arriving at Memphis, to-day.

NEW YORK, June 6. Specials state that Gen. Dix expects Col. Corcoran at Fort Monroe to-night.

Special to the New York Tribune.

FRONT ROYAL, June 6. Capt. Landerson, chief commissary, has taken possession of all the flour mills in the valley, together with the grain and flour on hand. Safe guards have been granted to the commanding general to all families who request them, without respect to their loyalty or disloyalty, and the soldiers who violate them will do so under the penalty of being immediately shot.

THE WEATHER is still unsettled and the roads almost impassable. Branches of the Shenandoah are still rising.

CAIRO, June 6. The dispatch boat of last night reports the evacuation of Fort Pillow and its occupation by our troops. Most of the flotilla has passed below Fort Randolph.

[Signed,] A. M. PENROCK, Commanding, &c.

REMARKS OF THE HEADQUARTERS, June 6. The further pursuit of Jackson has been impossible, to-day, owing to the sudden rise of the Shenandoah river. A pontoon bridge, replacing the bridge burnt by the rebels, was completed, and part of General Fremont's force crossed this morning. It rained hard all night and day. The river rose 12 feet in four hours, bringing down great quantities of drift wood and heavy timber, which finally parted the bridge in the middle. The material was all saved and no accidents occurred. Four hundred prisoners have been taken.

Correspondence of the New York Advertiser.

UNION STAFFS, ST. LOUIS, MO., June 6. I have barely time to forward a letter by the prize just captured off this place, which is on its way northward. The news here is quite important. Our gunboats are within four miles of Charleston, by way of Stone Island, and we all expect soon to attack it.

The Tribune editorially says: "We learn through a private channel, in which we confide, that the Unionists of Texas will soon be heard from. We understand that their arrangements for restoring their state to the Union have been quickly matured and that they have, ere this, thrown the old flag to the breeze under the lead of General Sam Houston. We cherish strong hopes that the rebels of Texas will soon turn up missing, and that Old Sam and Uncle Sam will have possession of the state. We await further tidings with lively interest."

Tribune's Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, June 6. Col. Geo. F. Shepley, of Maine, who is at present military commander of New Orleans, has, upon the recommendation of Gen. Butler, been appointed military governor of Louisiana. Capt. Schultz arrived to-day, with the treaty with Great Britain for the suppression of the slave trade, signed by the queen. Ratifications having been exchanged, the treaty is now law.

McCLANAHAN'S HEADQUARTERS, June 6. A flag of truce came in to-day, from Gen. Hagerman, seeking for the bodies of Gen. Pettigrew and Col. Davis, Lightfoot, Tong and Britton, who were supposed to have been killed in the late battle. Col. Davis was the only one killed. Lightfoot and Tong are prisoners and Britton was wounded, as also Gen. Pettigrew. Col. Davis' body will be returned.

France has withdrawn as proposed, and papers say we may look for them in a few weeks on our shores. Great fears are entertained for Baltimore and the state of Maryland. There is great excitement in the city, and rioters and mobs have full control.

EASTON, Pa., June 6. Reports from Manch Chueck and vicinity, represent the damage in that vicinity to the canal and railroad, private property and destruction of life, as greatly exaggerated, even the worst exaggerations. The canal is represented as washed away for 3 miles from Manch Chueck; 4 dams have been washed away. Several persons residents of Manch Chueck are missing, and it is feared they are drowned. All the islands in the river are covered with valuable lumber and timber. The Belvidere and Delaware railroad resumed operations, to-day. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western is now open to the Delaware Water Gap.—The Lehigh Valley railroad will be in operation to Allentown, to-morrow, making connection from New York to Harrisburg. The balance of the road will be repaired in 10 days. All the bridges on the Beaver Meadow railroad, are washed away.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC, June 6. Two deserters who have just come in, report that Gen. Jno. Johnston was seriously if not mortally wounded through the groin, by a mine ball during the late battle of Gettysburg. Gen. W. Smith now commands. Other information corroborates this; also, that the rebel loss is estimated at 10,000 killed, wounded and missing. No material change has occurred in the enemy's position.—Contrabands who left Richmond yesterday say that the city is in a terrible state of confusion. There are no troops in the city, except those doing guard duty. There are no signs of an evacuation. Everything shows their intention to make a determined resistance. The house tops in Richmond were covered on Sunday by several hundred men, who were expected to see our army driven into the Chickahominy, but when they saw the rebels run, the greatest consternation prevailed. It is rumored that Magruder is disgusted and intends to resign. Information is received that there are no rebel troops between the Rappahannock and the army of the Potomac.

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA, June 6. Fearful accounts of damage have been received from Manch Chueck and vicinity.—The dam there as well as at two other places were swept away Mission School.—The Second Ward Mission Sunday School will meet at half past four o'clock to-morrow afternoon in the rooms belonging to John P. Hoyt, next door to Brand's furniture store, on Main street. Officers of the school for the year will be elected at that time. Peter Myers, Esq. has kindly donated to the school a lot for the location of a chapel for their use; and it is hoped in a very short time to be able to erect a building suitable for the use of the school.

Rev. H. W. Spaulding will preach at the Institute for the Blind, to-morrow evening at 7 1/2 o'clock.

INFLUENCE OF THE MILWAUKEE NEWS.—Dr. Hebschman, the democratic candidate for senator in Milwaukee whom the Milwaukee News opposed, has been elected by a decided majority.

FOUND.—A shawl picked up in the street has been left at this office for an owner.

THE 12TH AND 15TH REGIMENTS.—A correspondent of the Wisconsin writes from Cairo, June 2d:

Just as I was writing the inspiring tones of military bands on steamers coming around the point from St. Louis, called me down to the levee, where I was rejoined to see our stalwart Wisconsin boys en route from the Mexican expedition, down the river. I found the 12th and 15th in glorious spirits, eager for no little service as yet. Col. Malouf, Col. Bryant and some of the regimental officers, who reported that the most of the men left sick in Kansas had recovered. With them came the Kansas regiments, which compose the remainder of Gen. Mitchell's brigade. I saw General Mitchell, who is a plain, sensible, determined looking officer, and well liked by his command. They go down to Columbus, where Gen. Quincy will be extremely delighted to see them just at this time, for he had not before a single man to spare, from post duty, to take care of the secession in the back country, and had no little anxiety as to the prospect of an attack on his weakened and scattered forces. The 12th and 15th are among our Wisconsin regiments, and will help spread among the vagrant secession heresies the reputation already acquired by Col. Daniels' dashing operations on the Missouri side. This reinforcement will enable Col. Daniels, through Gen. Quincy, to mature some very pretty operations which he has conceived and begun. Col. Daniels deserves a separate letter, and shall have it.

THE BLACK HORSE CAVALRY NOT AT BELL REX.—The New York Evening Post publishes the statement of a captured rebel officer, who is "well posted" in regard to southern matters. He was asked and made this reply:

"I saw many of the 'Black Horse' cavalry were slain by our troops at the battle of Mansfield."

THE BLACK HORSE CAVALRY NOT IN THE ENGAGEMENT.—After the battle was over, a person from New York City anonymously sent to the commander of the Black Horse cavalry a magnificent pair of silver spurs, as a compliment for his supposed gallantry, but the regiment took no part in the engagement."

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF

NEW YORK.

Cash Capital and Surplus Over

$1,500,000.00.

CHAS. J. MARTIN, A. F. WILMARTH,

President. Vice President.

JOHN MCGEE, Secretary.

E. L. DIMOCK, Agent,

for Janesville and vicinity.

The Wall Street Underwriter, for April, has the following:

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.—The annual statement of this company, made up to the 1st of January last, shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, president, A.

F. Wilmarth, vice-president, and John Mc-

Gee, secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the Home, for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of one million dollars, and surplus of almost one million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The Home is the crack company of our state, in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the Home on the 1st of January last summed up to $1,

521,268 09, against an actual liability of only $55,080.43! and moreover it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very best kind. The balance in bank invested was $124,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company, bonds and morgages $910,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,715,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $320,636.

Any one who is not satisfied with the security of the Home as an insurance institution must be hard to please.

In 1861 the Home wrote $106,715,148.00,

taking $829,903 premium, and paid losses

$553,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of 10 per cent was paid on the 1st of January, and after reserving an ample reserve fund the company shows a "net surplus" of $160,644, clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The Home is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

together with a statement of the dividends declared to customers, the amount of Scrip

Dividend representing such dividends, and the net surplus accumulated, since the plan of allocating the profits of this company to participate in the profits of the business was adopted: from which it is apparent that the system pursued and the customers of the company obtain a constantly increas-

The Net Surplus of the company, January

1, 1862, over and above all liabilities, after reserving a sum sufficient to re-insure all outstanding risks, was $123,287.24.

The company having reserved the right to issue non-participating policies, is pre-
